Mr.Camacho is thoroughly enthusiastic over the endurance run, and said last night that he would do everything he could to promote interest to the end and to see that the reliability test was carried out strictly according to the regulations. He laid especial stress on the road rules of the State, and said that any competitor would be immediately disqualified on breaking them. Speeding will positively not be allowed. No competitor will be permitted to inflict damage on line or landed property. Dogs chickens and other fowl must be spared. But no pensity will attach to those who are forced to stop cars and motors to avoid accidents to others.

Mr. Camacho is no less interested in the good roads movement, and said that all ilcense fees and fines in New York go to swell the State fund for improvement of the roads. The same law holds in Virginia, for fees and fines collected from automobilists are sent to the State Highway Commissioner to pay part of the annual expense of road building.

A final meeting, at which the referee will preside, will be held at 9 o'clock this evening, At this meeting the officials, owners, drivers and observers are required to be present, so that the final instructions may be given thom, and the observers be assigned to the various cars. No observer will ride in the car of the enirant who appointed him. And at this meeting Mr. Camacho will issue positive orders that all the rules of the road must be strictly observed. Especially in the case of a frightened horse, the car must come to a standstill, and, if necessary, the motor must be stopped. Such stopping of the motor will not count as a penalty, nor the count is a penal

"The fact that the more direct route via Fredericksburg was not selected on account of road conditions at several points, has not dampened the ardor of Fredericksburg citizens. They realize that automobile endurance tests do much to arouse interest and promote good roads, and they want to encourage the movement and show to the motorists that efforts are being made here, to bring about conditions in Virginia that will not alone make motoring a pleasure on its highways, but will enhance the value of lands and attract investors."

in the Democratic primary held in this State yesterday by a majority of 12,000 over his opponent, H. S. D. Mallory, Mallory ran on a State-wide prohibition platform,

The surprise contained in the belated returns is the heavy vote polled by Walter D. Seed for Lieutenant-Governor. He did not defeat E. Perry Thomas, but the majority of Mr. Thomas may not be over 5,000.

The following candidates are undoubtedly nominated.

Cyrus B. Brown, Secretary of State.

C. Brooks Smith, State Auditor, H. J. Willingham, Superintendent of Education, Reuben F. Kolb, Commissioner of Education, Leon McCord, Railroat Commissioner; J. R. Dowell, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, John C. Anderson, Ormond Somerville and A. D. Sayre, associate justices, and Senator John H. Bankhead, who posled more votes than both of his opponents.

DEATHS

WISE-The friends of fMRS. LUCY REDD WISE will be pained to learn of her death, which occurred at the King's Daughters' Hospital, in the city of Portsmouth, on Saturday ovening. April 30, at 11:15 o'clock. The deceased was the only daughter of the late James T. Redd, of Henrico county, where she resided previous to her marriage to Mr. William L. Wise, of Churchland, in Norfolk county. Since her marriage she had resided at Churchland, and only recently she and her husband moved to the old homestead of the Wises, "Hattor's Point," on the Western Branch of the Elizabeth River.

Mrs. Wise was an artist of considerable ability, and some of her paintings attracted marked attention at several of the State Fairs and other exhibitions. She was also a versatlle and brilliant writer, and her illustrated articles were attractive features of the Jamestown Magazine, which was published during the exposition.

A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE. One of the most valuable qualities of Mother's Friend is that it safe-guards the future health of the mother. It is a liniment to be applied externally to the body, the use of which lubricates the muscles and tendons, softens the glands and ducts, prevents lumps forming in the breasts, and relieves the pain, nervousness, nausea, and other troubles from which so many expectant mothers suffer. When Mother's Friend is used regularly it fits and prepares the system for an easy and natural consummation of the term. Women who massage with this great liniment are always saved much suffering when baby comes, and recover more quickly, and without ill effects. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores.
